7. Classifications

7.1 Individual stage classification by time:

The riders will be classified in the order of their arrival. No time bonuses will be awarded. In the case of a fall, tire damage or mechanical defect on the last three kilometers the UCI rules (Art. 2.6.027) will be applied. The time limit for all stages will be 10%. Under special circumstances, the time limit can be changed by the College of Commissioners in consultation with the organisational team.

7.2 General individual classification on time: Yellow Jersey

Will be calculated by adding the time of each stage and taking into account the time penalties. For all riders, arriving in a group, by no more than one second between, the same time will enter into force. In the case of the same time, the lower sum of all placements in all stages will enter into force (Square point). In the case of same square point, the better placement on the last stage will enter into force.

7.3 Individual point classification by points:

At each stage, points (20, 15, 11, 8, 6, 4, 2, 1) for the first eight riders in the order of their arrival will be awarded.

7.4 General individual point classification by points: Blue Jersey

Is calculated by adding the points the rider achieved at all the stages. In the case of same points, the number of stage victories achieved. In another tie, the better placement in the individual general classification by time (after the last passed stage) will enter into force.

7.5 King of mountain by points:

At each mountain classification, points (6, 4, 3, 2, 1) for the first five riders in the order of their arrival will be awarded.

1 st stage	2 nd stage	3 rd stage
Mistelbacherberg Km 30,3	Erdleiten Km 43,5	Weinberg Km 27,6
Mistelbacherberg Km 58,3	Rechberg Km 57,6	Wolfsegg Km 43,0
Mistelbacherberg Km 86,3	Allerheiligen Km 78,6

7.6 General King of Mountain by points: White/red dotted Jersey

Is calculated by adding the individual mountain scores the riders achieved in each mountain classification. In the case of same points, the number of mountain victories will enter into force. In another tie, the better placement in the individual general classification by time (after the last passed stage) will enter into force.

7.7 Individual sprint classification by points

At each sprint classification, points (4, 2, 1) for the first three riders in the order of their arrival will be awarded.

1 st stage	2 nd stage	3 rd stage
1 st finish passage Km 12,5	Perg Km 71,3	Bad Wimsbach Km 11,0
2 nd finish passage Km 40,5		Bad Wimsbach Km 16,5
3 rd finish passage Km 68,5		2 nd finish passage Km 66,7
		4 th finish passage Km 78,1

7.8 General sprint classification by points: White Jersey

Is calculated by adding the individual sprint scores the riders achieved in each sprint classification. In the case of same points, the number of sprint victories will enter into force. In another tie, the better placement in the individual general classification by time (after the last passed stage) will enter into force.

7.9 Team classification by time:

Is calculated by adding the three best riders time within a team. In the case of same time the sum of the ranking of the three best riders (by time) will enter into force. In another tie, the position of the best rider in the stage classification will enter into force.

7.10 General team classification by time:

Is calculated by adding the individual stages. For the calculation the team classification by time will enter into force. In the case of same time the sum of the first places in the daily team classification will enter into force. In another tie the sum of the second places in the daily team classification will enter into force. For further equality the position of the best driver in the general classification by time of the team will enter into force.

7.11 Most active Austrian Rider: Red Jersey

Will be determined by the race commissaires.
